Eamon Hannan – Principal

Year 12 Retreat
Catholic schooling is centred on our spirituality as Catholics and the development of Catholic community. The Year 11 and 12 Retreats are a very important aspect of our Catholic life at St Patricks.

Year 12 students had a two day retreat with Mr Michael Fitzpatrick last Thursday and Friday. Many of the students have had a one day experience with Mr Fitzpatrick in either year 9 or year 10 but all have agreed that the Year 12 retreat with its focus on setting things right for the next stage of their journey has been most significant and memorable for them.

The highlight of the retreat for many students was the web of connections that they created by discussing significant events that have occurred in their two years at the college. The web was then symbolically cut indicating what will happen as they graduate in a few short weeks and disperse each taking their piece of the story with them.

In a ritual in the middle of the day on Friday students acknowledged each other, forgave each other and supported each other. Students also received a blessing from the Leadership team. Students were also challenged during the retreat to think about their participation in the wider church community. Photographs on pages 9 – 10.

Year 11 Retreat and QCS Day
Year 11 students engaged well in their one day retreat with the Passionist retreat team from Brisbane. This retreat had a focus on relationships talking about the masks we wear. This activity leads towards our leadership program at the end of term where we will be electing and appointing leaders for 2016.

Year 11 students also worked hard on a Short Response Test and had an introduction to the Multiple Choice sections of the QCS test in preparation for next year. Photographs on pages 11 – 12.

Eisteddfod
As I write this a number of our groups are performing in the Mackay Eisteddfod. This is the culmination of a great deal of preparation by students and staff over the course of the year. I am also aware that we have many students competing individually and we wish all groups the very best.

Coming Events
• Next Monday 19 October is a student-free day as staff are attending QCAA Verification Meetings. At these meetings the work of Year 12 students from all school in the district is verified against syllabus standards. These meetings are crucial to our school based assessment system in Queensland.
• All parents and students are invited to attend our Showcase and Sports Dinner coming up shortly.
  ➢ On 30 October our Performing Artists will present Showcase which is a celebration of a very successful year in this area of college life.
  ➢ On 13 November we have our Annual Sports Awards Dinner.
Watch newsletters for more detail regarding both these events.

Valedictory and Graduation
The year 12 Valedictory evening is coming up on Monday 16 November at the MECC commencing at 7:30 pm. The year 12 Graduation Mass is on Friday 20 November at 9:30 am. I am sending a letter to parents of year 12 about these events. Even though the focus of these events is the Senior group, parents of Year 11 students are also very welcome to attend.

Semi-formal
The Year 11 Semi-formal is coming up on the last day of term 27 November. This event follows an important series of leadership days where we elect our college leadership for 2016.

Update on works around the grounds
As mentioned last week a number of upgrades have been completed around the college over the September holiday break. In the photo pages of the newsletter you will see carpeting and benches and seating outside the new auditorium. An upgraded entrance to the Performing Arts Centre and rejuvenated gardens and lawns outside of the administration block (see page 13).

Industrial action
We currently have ongoing industrial action in schools across Queensland. At St Patrick's our aim is to minimise impacts on students.

Sunday 18 October 2015 - Readings at Mass – 29th Sunday of the year

First reading, Isaiah, 53:10 – 11 … His soul's anguish over, he shall see the light and be content.

Psalm, Ps 32:4-5, 18-20, 22 … Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Second reading, Hebrews, 4:14 – 16 … Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

Gospel, Mark, 10:35-45 … For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.

Lesley Fraser – Assistant to the Principal: Religious Education

While we pray that we all stay focused this term on the achievements that are about to be realized, we also understand that there is a lot of hard work yet to be done before December. For the Year 12s, one could say that this is the beginning of the end of their childhood schooling. On the other hand, this is the beginning of their adult self. The transition from one to other is not always simple. For the Year 11s, they are preparing to take on the responsibility of leading our college. We hope that students in the next coming weeks reflect upon what it takes to make a good leader. The retreats that were held last week were organised in order to assist our students with these transitions. We have had an overwhelmingly positive reaction from the students about their experiences on retreat. The 12s presenter Michael Fitzpatrick, inspired our young adults and assisted them with setting positive goals for the future based on a strong sense of self awareness. The 11s heard about and participated in leadership activities which were led by four young Passionists from Brisbane. One Year 12 student commented that “the retreat was rewarding in many ways. I had the chance get to know some people that I haven’t met before. I enjoyed the many activities which required us to trust our peers and use our communication skills. This experience has given me the courage and confidence to think about taking the road less travelled.”

I can confidently say that the students thoroughly enjoyed themselves and greatly valued the experience. No matter what academic results are taken away from school, nothing will be as important as the qualities of each individual; their strong character, self-awareness, confidence and righteousness.

Very few people know the flower in this photo because it belongs to a cactus which blooms only in the night. Looking at the prickly cactus by day, we could never imagine it could produce such beauty hidden from the view of everyone except the moths!

All of us know prickly people who seem to be such a nuisance. They rub us the wrong way. Their forbidding exterior repels us. We want to keep as far away as possible. How to love such people? How to believe in their hidden beauty?

In the film Walk the Line, Johnny Cash suffers from low self-esteem and cannot get along with his father. But one friend is willing to walk the line with him, to see him through his addictions and rough days until finally he gets his act together in the night of his life. She was a cactus lover.

Cactus lovers give us hope. They look for the first signs of the buds appearing and their patience is eventually rewarded in the dead of night when the beautiful flower comes to life. Let us all be cactus lovers.
Edna Galvin – Assistant to the Principal: Curriculum

Very Important Information – after Graduation
On the Wednesday after the Year 12 students finish school (November 25) – all results in their subjects including their SAI’s (Subject Achievement Indicators) are published on the College Admin noticeboard / desk where they will remain for a week for checking. This is required under the Legislation – students must see their own result as well as that result in relation to all other students in the same subjects. That is one of the reasons that we publish earlier results so students are used to checking carefully their achievement levels and also to make sure that all our processes are as transparent as possible in this high stakes area. Could all Year 12 students please ensure that they check this data carefully.

Eisteddfod
The Mackay Eisteddfod offers all of our cultural students’ one of the very few opportunities to perform to an audience. This is one of the key purposes of the different Art forms – the other is of course the sheer joy of singing, dancing, acting or playing music. Way down the list are any prizes or places – these are often long forgotten while the excellence of performance remains. We congratulate the many students involved in this year’s eisteddfod. Congratulations also to their hard working teachers and supportive parents.

Also important to note is that while we support everything you do at the Eisteddfod, it is very important that you attend school as often as you are able to and that you catch up on any missed work at this important time of year.

Joan McGarry Professional Day
On Monday 2 November the college will be holding its annual Joan McGarry Professional Day – this is a day where ALL students do not come in uniform but dress for their future employment. This has been a huge success in the past and we have been encouraged by Industry to make students very clear of workplace dress codes as they prepare for their future careers. Vouchers and other prizes will be given out on the day for the most appropriately dressed students.

Last year was the first time that Professional Day was called Joan McGarry Professional Day. This has come about because many at the College wanted to have a long lasting memorial or tribute of some kind to thank Joan McGarry for the wonderful bursaries she has left the College. The Board came up with this excellent suggestion, put forward by one of our 2014 Student Board members, Lachlan Carroll, as in Lachlan’s words ‘Joan McGarry had an excellent career as a nurse and her bursary goes to help students at St Patrick’s achieve their career goals so Professional Day would be a perfect tribute.’ Lachlan’s good idea is a great example of how important it is to have Year 12 students on the College Board.

Sarah Rozekrans – Cultural Coordinator

Mackay Eisteddfod:

Congratulations to all those who have performed in the Eisteddfod thus far. It’s wonderful to see so many familiar faces at the Mackay Entertainment and Convention Centre. For those who are yet to perform - break a leg and have fun!

On Monday, our Handbell Quartet, comprising of year 12 students Rebecca Wootton, Georgia Rogers, Ellie Kaddatz and Lucy Hamilton, competed in the “Instrumental (non-electric) Trio / Quartet Secondary School Students’ section. With the help of their experienced director, Mrs Carmel Daveson, the girls won 1st place.

“Overall, this was an excellent, well played and executed performance. Enjoyed hearing you today!”

Mr Rob McWilliams (Adjudicator)

Thank you to Mrs Daveson, Mrs Williams and Mr Lamont for the wonderful support, time and organisation you give to our students. Once again, congratulations to our quartet and Mrs Daveson on a wonderful start to this year’s Eisteddfod!
Yesterday, our Handbell, Percussion and Stage Band ensembles competed at the Eisteddfod and were very successful overall. Our Percussion Ensemble were awarded 3rd place in the Percussion/Handbell Ensemble (Secondary) section with their performance of “Up & On”.

Later that evening, in the ‘Any Acoustic Instruments Group (Open)’ section, our Handbells were awarded 1st place with “Les Miserables Medley” and our Percussion Ensemble took 2nd place with their performance of “Summon the Spirits” in the same section.

Whilst our Stage Band’s performance of “Bernie’s Tune” didn’t place, they received wonderful feedback, especially toward our Stage Band captain, Angela Galea who played a convincing alto sax solo.

“Nice work on the sax solo part at bar 85 onwards. This had a good strong finish to the end! Enjoyed hearing you tonight- keep up the good work!” - Mr Rob McWilliams (Adjudicator)

The night ended with our Handbell ensemble being awarded with 2nd place in the 'Small Group of Any Acoustic Instruments Group (Open)' with their performance of "Carillon". They then were awarded the perpetual trophy for ‘Most Enjoyable Performance – OPEN’, donated by Ms Janet Jackson, for their earlier performance of "Les Miserables Medley".

This morning, the Stage Band performed “Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy” in the ‘Stage Band Group (Secondary)’ section. They were awarded second place. Special mention to Ella Jarvis who played a fantastic tenor sax solo, and to Mr. David Pyke who has evidently had a very successful first Eisteddfod! Thank you to all the students, staff and parents who have helped with the Eisteddfod thus far. I’d especially like to thank Mrs Sinead Williams, Mr Andrew Lamont, Mrs Denise Stewart, Mr. Lyle Denman, Mrs Carmel Daveson, Mr David Pyke and my husband, Dennis Rozekrans for packing, assembling, disassembling, organising, rehearsing and supervising our talented ensembles! Without your support, it’s just not possible to partake in big events such as the Eisteddfod!
Next week our choristers will perform at the times below:

Come show your support! We would love to see you there!

Distinctly Australasian Bells

St Patrick’s Handbell musicians are as talented as any in New Zealand or Australia. This was clearly demonstrated when Rebecca Wootton attended the inaugural Distinctly Australasian Bells Event in Adelaide which was held from 22 to 24 September. Rebecca is standing next to Lee Afdahl, the international composer and director of handbell and choral music. Mr Afdahl travelled from United States of America to work with 20 of Australasia’s most talented and advanced handbell musicians. Carmel Daveson, President of the Handbell Society of Australasia organised the event to challenge and extend the skills and musicality of handbell musicians from Australasia.

Dean Andric – English Coordinator

We have recently sent letters to students who we believe are capable of undertaking the challenge of studying English Extension in 2016 and would like to invite them to participate in a one day workshop on Monday 19 October 2015 (Verification day) at the College. English Extension is an OP subject, but unlike other OP subjects offered at the College, is a one year program. The subject guide is available on the QCAA website at https://www.qcaa.qld.edu.au/17601.html.

The one day workshop will be held in J1 and J2 on Monday 19 October from 8:30 am to 3:00 pm. The program will include lectures, workshops and activities which will provide students with a background to, and an overview of the course. Each student will receive a workbook on the day. Jan Barnett, the English Extension teacher, and year 12 students from the class of 2015 will work with the students throughout the day.

Students should wear academic uniform. They should bring:
- Note taking materials (paper or digital)
- pens
Students can either pre-pay $15.00 for morning tea and lunch, or bring their own morning tea and lunch. The tuckshop will not be open and students will not be able to leave the school grounds.

The day is an introduction to the subject and does not commit the student to studying the subject in 2016. It is our aim is to have students make an informed choice about studying the subject in 2016. To register for the day please return the slip at the bottom of the letter received to Ms Barnett at the College by Thursday 15 October for planning and catering purposes.

Queensland University of Technology - Vice Chancellors STEM Camp Report

Lachlan Stevens

Over the Term 3 holidays, Amelia Sant and I were invited to attend a STEM camp at QUT. This camp revolved around Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) and hosted 16 projects covering each of the respective areas inside of STEM. The project I was placed in was “A Sensitive Investigation”, this project consisted of the creation of a small sensor which would detect and provide feedback such as current pH of the air to the toxicity of alcoholic beverages. Alongside these projects we were able to hear from world class industry experts such as HP’s Asia-Pacific innovation lead, Roger Lawrence who provided insights as to the world over the next ten years.

Over the course of the camp there were projects such 3D printing of body parts, manipulation of DNA to find a perpetrator of a murder case, precise surgery through the utilisation of a robot arm and fruit picking using computer vision and robot chassis. Nearing the end of the camp we had a cocktail dinner with a lot of industry professionals from all over Brisbane. We were able to talk and meet the people who are behind the big companies all over Australia and what they were doing to incorporate the areas of STEM in the future. All in all I believe this camp was an amazing experience where I met a lot of new people who were interested in the same thing as me and I highly recommend it for next year’s year 11 students who are interested in anything involving medicine, engineering, maths and technology!

In the second week of the holidays I travelled to QUT for the 2015 Vice Chancellors STEM Camp in Brisbane. This camp is designed for high achieving Year 11 students from across Queensland who have an interest in Science, Technology, Engineering or Math.

Amelia Sant

During the week I had a great time touring QUT, working in the Lab, meeting other students, working with professors and undergraduates as well as getting a feel for Uni life. I worked together with other students to study various real world issues. I was placed in a group called “Crops for the Future.” This involved looking at the effects of salinity and drought on the pigeon pea plant. At the end of the camp each group presented their findings to an audience.

The camp has given me a great insight in future career choices within the STEM fields.

Champion Basketball School of Queensland Carnival
During the first week of the school holidays the St Patrick’s College First V Basketball team competed in the Champion Basketball School of Queensland Carnival held in Brisbane. St Patrick’s were competing in Division 1 of the carnival for the first time, giving the team an opportunity to compete against the best schools in the state.

St Patrick’s finished 3rd in their pool which set up a Quarter-Final against Hillcrest Christian College. The game finished 91 – 81 in favour of Hillcrest. The following two days saw St Pat’s have a win against St Columban’s College (96 – 57) and a narrow loss to Gregory Terrace (66 – 65). This resulted in St Patrick’s finishing 10th for the carnival, an outstanding result.

A big thank-you must be extended to the team coach Mr Jamiey Doevendans, who was accompanied by Mr Dean Andric and Mr Eamon Hannan, for preparing the boys to play at such a high standard throughout the carnival.

Mr Andric would also like to extend a personal thank-you to following people for their support in the lead-up and during the carnival; Tracey Doevendans, Kerry Milburn, Kayleen Collins and the Rebetzke family for their generous donation.

To be ranked in the top 10 schools in Queensland for Basketball is an outstanding achievement for the team and is testament to the amount of preparation and training that went into the carnival.

Queensland Schoolboys Hockey Tour
Luke Armstrong and Declan Mulherin have recently returned from the Queensland Schoolboys’ Hockey tour of New Zealand. An injury to Luke midway through the tour resulted in Declan being called in to play for the team having been originally selected as the team umpire. The team played 9 games (7 wins, 1 loss, 1 draw) against representative teams from across New Zealand, including the New Zealand Maori Under 21 side.

Luke was awarded Man of The Match in two games, while Declan received high praise for his officiating throughout the tour.

Congratulations to both boys on proudly representing St Patrick’s College on such a prestigious tour.
